INTRODUCTION

With One Voice has been prepared as an additional volume of resources for Lutherans at worship. It is intended to stand beside the principal worship book presently in use and to supplement its contents.

Several premises underlie the preparation of this collection. With One Voice is oriented primarily to the principal weekly assembly of God's people. These new liturgical settings, hymns, and songs are offered to assist those who gather around the Word and Sacraments, and to support the lectionary as it unfolds the saving story through the seasons of the Christian year.

The title suggests another focus of the volume. The letter to the Romans contains the exhortation to "live in harmony with one another...that together you may with one voice glorify...God" (Romans 15:5-6). A quick glance at this resource will reveal that to sing "with one voice" does not imply uniformity of expression. The "one voice" of the Church represents an amazingly diverse fabric, many songs of many cultures in many styles, woven together by the one Spirit. The size of With One Voice allows only a sampling of these many songs, but the breadth represented here is a witness to the Church's unity in diversity and an encouragement to communities to cultivate a variety of expressions when they gather, rather than dividing themselves by style of worship or music.

The liturgy of Holy Communion in With One Voice continues to "embody the tradition of worship which received its characteristic shape during the early centuries of the Church's existence and was reaffirmed during the Reformation era" (Introduction, Lutheran Book of Worship). The design of the services in this volume aims to reveal this characteristic shape. Two services of Holy Communion (Light of Christ and Bread of Life) are presented with complete musical settings. Holy Communion: All Times and Places, Setting 6, follows the model of Martin Luther's Chorale Service and suggests the insertion of service music from a wide variety of sources to be used for the principal musical elements. It is a flexible structure enabling the celebration of Holy Communion with integrity while allowing for adaptation to various circumstances.

This resource includes also a Service of Word and Prayer, incorporating service music, proclamation of the Word, creed and confession, offering and prayer.

The many songs gathered together in the hymn collection of With One Voice include a large number that have already found their way into the repertoire of many Lutheran assemblies. In addition to well-loved hymns from several traditions, there are contributions from the diverse cultures of North America as well as a representative sampling of materials from other parts of the world. Songs that center around a repeated refrain (choruses, materials from Taizé) stand alongside the lively poetry and new melodies of the "hymnic explosion" of the last two decades. Strong and singable melodies have been prized in every genre represented. Accompaniments are included throughout for the hymns and songs in order to enable the use of these materials in a variety of settings and to enable singing in harmony where appropriate.

Throughout this supplementary resource careful attention has been given to the use of language that includes all God's people and employs a broadened palette of images for the persons of the Trinity. Liturgical texts are in continuity with those prepared for LBW, incorporating several further revisions of the English Language Liturgical Consultation (an ecumenical group representing major English-speaking churches) published in Praying Together (1988). The ELLC versions of the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds are provided on pages 54–55, and congregations are encouraged to study them for possible use.

Thirty years ago, Lutherans in North America entered into a significant process in the development of common worship resources as the Inter-Lutheran Commission on Worship undertook work leading toward a renewal in the worship life of the Lutheran churches. In the intervening years, the rapid change of contemporary society has confronted the world and the Church. While the fundamental pattern of the Church's worship does not change, the ways that Christians at worship express themselves in word, music, and gesture are always unfolding. Developed by the Publishing House and the Division for Congregational Ministries of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America, with consultation and review provided by congregations and lay persons, church musicians and pastors, theologians and ecumenical partners, With One Voice is offered as a further vehicle for the richly varied and constantly emerging praise and prayer of the Church.

May With One Voice be a useful instrument so that “joined together in harmony and having received the godly melody in unison, you might sing in one voice through Jesus Christ...that you might always partake of God.”

(Ephesians IV, Ignatius of Antioch, c. 35–c. 107 A.D.)

It is the voice of the Church that is heard in singing together.
It is not you that sings, it is the Church that is singing,
and you, as a member of the Church, may share in its song.
Thus all singing together...serves to widen our spiritual horizon,
make us see our little company as a member of the great Christian Church on earth,
and help us willingly and gladly to join our singing,
be it feeble or good,
to the song of the Church.

Dietrich Bonhöffer, Life Together

In addition to the Pew Edition, an Accompaniment Edition with complete liturgical music and the entire collection of hymns and songs with additional alternate harmonizations is available, as well as a Leaders Edition, which supplies materials needed by those who plan and conduct worship. All three editions are necessary in order for With One Voice to be used to its full potential.

FOUNDATIONS FOR THE CHRISTIAN ASSEMBLY

From the earliest days of the Church, Christian worship has been marked by a pattern of gathering, word, meal, and sending. These basic elements—revealed in the New Testament, the writings of the early Church, the Lutheran confessions, and ecumenical documents—constitute the center of the Church’s worship.

Beginning with Moses and all the prophets, Jesus interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures. . . . When he was at table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened and they recognized him.

Luke 24:27, 30–31a

The baptized devoted themselves to the apostles’ teaching and fellowship, to the breaking of bread and the prayers.

Acts 2:42

On Sunday all are gathered together in unity. The records of the apostles or the writings of the prophets are read for as long as time allows. The presider exhorts and invites us into the pattern of these good things. Then we all stand and offer prayer.

When we have concluded the prayer, bread is set out together with wine. . . . The presider then offers prayer and thanksgiving and the people sing out their assent, saying the “Amen.” There is a distribution of the things over which thanks has been said and each person participates, and these things are sent to those who are not present.

Those who are prosperous give what they wish according to each one’s own choice, and the collection is deposited with the presider, who aids orphans and widows, those in want because of disease, those in prison, and foreigners who are staying here.

We hold this meeting together on Sunday since it is the first day, on which God, having transformed darkness and matter, created the world. On the same day Jesus Christ our Savior rose from the dead. On Sunday he appeared to his apostles and disciples and taught them these things which we present to you.

From the Apology of Justin Martyr (c. 150 A.D.)

It is taught among us that one holy Christian church will be and remain forever. This is the assembly of all believers among whom the Gospel is preached in its purity and the holy sacraments are administered according to the Gospel.

For it is sufficient for the true unity of the Christian church that the Gospel be preached in conformity with a pure understanding of it and that the sacraments be administered in accordance with the divine Word. It is not necessary for the true unity of the Christian church that humanly instituted ceremonies should be observed uniformly in all places.

Augsburg Confession VII (1530)

The Church earnestly desires that all the faithful be led to that full, conscious, and active participation in liturgical celebrations called for by the very nature of the liturgy. Such participation by the Christian people as “a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God’s own people” (1 Peter 2:9; see 2:4–5) is their right and duty by reason of their baptism.

Constitution on the Liturgy, Second Vatican Council (1963)

The services of Lutheran Book of Worship embody the tradition of worship which received its characteristic shape during the early centuries of the Church’s existence and was reaffirmed during the Reformation era. ...

Freedom and flexibility in worship is a Lutheran inheritance, and there is room for ample variety in ceremony, music, and liturgical form. Having considered their resources and their customs, congregations will find their own balance between fully using the ritual and musical possibilities of the liturgy, and a more modest practice. A full service should not allow secondary ceremonies to eclipse central elements of the liturgy, nor should a simple service omit essential or important parts.

Every service, whether elaborate or spare, sung or said, should be within the framework of the common rite of the Church, so that the integrity of the rite is always respected and maintained.

Lutheran Book of Worship (1978)

HOLY COMMUNION

Shape of the Rite

Sunday is the primary day on which the Church assembles: the first day of creation when God transformed darkness into light and the day on which Christ rose from death and revealed himself to the disciples in the scriptures and the breaking of the bread. The baptized gather to hear the word, to pray for those in need, to offer thanks to God for the gift of salvation, to receive the bread of life and the cup of blessing, and to be renewed for the daily witness of faith, hope, and love. To guests, strangers, and all in need, the Church offers these good things of God's grace.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

God calls and gathers believers through the Holy Spirit, and in response the community acclaims this gracious God in song and prayer. The gathering of the congregation may begin with a confession of sin and/or an entrance hymn. God's welcome is extended to the congregation by the presider. When appropriate, a litany or hymn of praise may be sung immediately before the prayer of the day. Through these actions, the congregation prepares to hear the Word of God.

THE PRAYERS

In the rich treasure of Scripture proclaimed by readers and preachers, the Church hears the good news of God acting in this and every time and place. A three-year cycle of readings provides portions of the Hebrew Scriptures, the New Testament letters, and the Gospel books for each week. During Advent/Christmas, the lectionary reveals the mystery of the Word made flesh. In Lent/Easter, the paschal mystery of the Lord's death and resurrection is proclaimed. Throughout the Season after Pentecost, the New Testament texts are read in a continuous order. During the last Sundays of the year, the readings present the final vision of a new heaven and a new earth.

This encounter with the living Word, Jesus Christ, is marked by proclamation and silence, psalm and hymn, singing and speaking, movement and gesture. Silence after the readings allows time for the word to be pondered. The sermon announces good news for the community and the world; the hymn of the day both proclaims and responds to the word; a creed is a further response to it. God's Word, read and preached and acclaimed, leads the community to pray for the Church, the people of the world, and those who suffer or are in need.

Prayer

In thanksgiving, the congregation praises God for the gracious gifts of creation and the saving deeds of Jesus Christ. To the table of the Lord are brought bread and wine, simple signs of God's love, humble signs of human labor. In word and gesture, prayer and song, the people lift up their hearts in praise and thanksgiving for the gifts of forgiveness, life, and salvation, hearing Jesus' words spoken at this supper, remembering his death and resurrection. The presider asks that the Holy Spirit unite the community in the Lord's bread and cup so that, as one body in Christ, it too might proclaim God's salvation in the world. To this grateful proclamation, the community joins its "Amen" before praying the Lord's Prayer with one voice. Welcomed to the table, each one is united with God in Christ, with each other, and with the Church's mission in the world. During the communion, hymns, songs, and psalms may be sung. As the table is cleared, the congregation may sing a canticle. A brief prayer concludes the liturgy of the meal.

SENDING

BLESSING
Dismissal

Worship on the Lord's Day ends with simplicity. The community receives the blessing of God. All are invited to leave in peace, sent out to serve in word and deed: to speak the words of good news they have heard, to care for those in need, and to share what they have received with the poor and the hungry.

Central elements of the Holy Communion liturgy are noted in uppercase letters; other elements support and reveal the essential shape of Christian worship.

BRIEF ORDER FOR CONFESSION AND FORGIVENESS

Stand

The minister leads the congregation in the invocation. The sign of the cross may be made by all in remembrance of their Baptism.

P In the name of the Father, and of the ✝ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

G Amen

The minister continues, using one of the sections below.

P Almighty God,
to whom all hearts are open,
all desires known,
and from whom no secrets are hid:
Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts
by the inspiration of your Holy Spirit,
that we may perfectly love you
and worthily magnify your holy name,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. ⁽²³⁶⁾

G Amen

P If we say we have no sin,
we deceive ourselves,
and the truth is not in us.
But if we confess our sins,
God who is faithful and just will forgive our sins
and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

OR

P God of all mercy and consolation,
come to the aid of your people,
turning us from our sin
to live for you alone.
Give us the power of your Holy Spirit
that, attentive to your Word,
we may confess our sins,
receive your forgiveness,
and grow into the fullness of your Son,
Jesus Christ our Lord. ⁽⁵⁷⁴⁾

G Amen

P Let us confess our sin in the presence of God and of one another.

Kneel/Stand

Silence for reflection and self-examination.

P Most merciful God,
C we confess
that we are in bondage to sin
and cannot free ourselves.
We have sinned against you
in thought, word, and deed,
by what we have done
and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you
with our whole heart;
we have not loved
our neighbors as ourselves.
For the sake of your Son, Jesus Christ,
have mercy on us.
Forgive us, renew us, and lead us,
so that we may delight in your will
and walk in your ways,
to the glory of your holy name. Amen

P Gracious God,
C have mercy on us.
In your compassion
forgive us our sins,
known and unknown,
things done and left undone.
Uphold us by your Spirit
so that we may live and serve you
in newness of life,
to the honor and glory of your holy name;
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The minister stands and addresses the congregation.

P In the mercy of almighty God,
Jesus Christ was given to die for us,
and for his sake
God forgives us all our sins.
As a called and ordained minister of the Church of Christ, and by his authority,
I therefore declare to you
the entire forgiveness of all your sins,
in the name of the Father,
and of the ✝ Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
C Amen

P Almighty God have mercy on you,
forgive you all your sins
through our Lord Jesus Christ,
strengthen you in all goodness,
and by the power of the Holy Spirit
keep you in eternal life.
C Amen

CREED

A Creed may be said: the Nicene Creed, on all festivals and on Sundays in the seasons of Advent/Christmas and Lent/Easter; the Apostles' Creed, at other times. When Holy Baptism or another rite with a creed is celebrated, this creed may be omitted.

NICENE CREED

C We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven;
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the virgin Mary, and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen

APOSTLES' CREED

☩ I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit
and born of the virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell.*
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

Or, He descended to the dead.*

THE PRAYERS

The Prayers begin with these or similar words:

A Let us pray for the whole people of God in Christ Jeſus,
and for all people according to their needs.

Prayers are included for the whole Church, the nations, those in need, the parish, and special concerns. The congregation may be invited to offer other petitions. The minister gives thanks for the faithful departed, especially for those who recently have died.

Each portion of the prayers concludes with these or similar words:

A Lord, in your mercy,
C hear our prayer.

OR

A Hear us, O God;
C your mercy is great.

The prayers conclude with these or similar words:

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Great Thanksgiving is begun by the presiding minister.

P The Lord be with you. P Lift up your hearts.

C And al-so with you. C We lift them to the Lord.

P Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C It is right to give our thanks and praise.

P It is indeed right and salutary that we should at all times and in all places offer thanks... (Here the minister continues with the proper preface, concluding:) we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

C Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord,
Lord God of pow'r and might, heav-en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless - ed, bless - ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

P You are indeed holy, O God,
the fountain of all holiness;
you bring light from darkness,
life from death,
speech from silence.

We worship you for our lives
and for the world you give us.

We thank you
for the new world to come and for the love
that will rule all in all.

We praise you for the grace
shown to Israel, your chosen,
the people of your promise:
the rescue from Egypt,
the gift of the promised land,
the memory of the ancestors,
the homecoming from exile,
and the prophets' words
that will not be in vain.

In all this we bless you
for your only-begotten Son,
who fulfilled and will fulfill
all your promises.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread,
and gave thanks; broke it,
and gave it to his disciples,
saying: Take and eat;
this is my body, given for you.

Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper,
he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink,
saying: This cup is
the new covenant in my blood,
shed for you and for all people
for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

This prayer continues on page 24.

OR

P Holy, mighty, and merciful Lord,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

In great love you sent to us Jesus,
your Son, who reached out
to heal the sick and suffering,
who preached good news to the poor,
and who, on the cross,
opened his arms to all.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread,
and gave thanks; broke it,
and gave it to his disciples,
saying: Take and eat;
this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper,
he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink,
saying: This cup is
the new covenant in my blood,
shed for you and for all people
for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore,
his death, resurrection, and ascension,
we await his coming in glory.

Pour out your Holy Spirit,
that by this Holy Communion
we may know the unity
we share with all your people
in the body of your Son,
Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through him, with him, in him,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honor is yours,
almighty Father, now and forever.

✠ Amen

The Lord's Prayer follows on page 25.

P For as often as we eat of this bread and drink from this cup,
we proclaim the Lord's death until he comes.

C Christ has died. Christ is ris - en.

Christ will come a - gain.

P Therefore, O God, with this bread and cup
we remember the incarnation of your Son:
his human birth and the covenant he made with us.
We remember the sacrifice of his life:
his eating with outcasts and sinners,
and his acceptance of death.

But chiefly we remember his rising from the tomb,
his ascension to the seat of power,
and his sending of the holy and life-giving Spirit.
We cry out for the resurrection of our lives,
when Christ will come again in beauty and power
to share with us the great and promised feast.

C A - men. Come, Lord Je - sus.

P Send now, we pray, your Holy Spirit,
that we and all who share in this bread and cup
may be united in the communion of the Holy Spirit,
may enter the fullness of the kingdom of heaven,
and may receive our inheritance with all your saints in light.

C A - men. Come, Ho - ly Spir - it.

P Join our prayers with those of your servants
of every time and every place, and unite them with the ceaseless petitions of our great high priest
until he comes as victorious Lord of all.
Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honor is yours, almighty Father, now and forever.

C A - men, a - men, a - men.

LORD'S PRAYER

P Let us pray with confidence
in the words our Savior gave us:

C Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen

P Lord, remember us in your
kingdom, and teach us to pray:

C Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen

HYMN OF THE DAY

CREED

A Creed may be said: the Nicene Creed, on all festivals and on Sundays in the seasons of Advent/Christmas and Lent/Easter; the Apostles' Creed, at other times. When Holy Baptism or another rite with a creed is celebrated, this creed may be omitted.

NICENE CREED

C We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven;
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the virgin Mary, and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen

APOSTLES' CREED

c I believe in God, the Father almighty,
creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.
He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit
and born of the virgin Mary.
He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.
He descended into hell.*
On the third day he rose again.
He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

*Or, He descended to the dead.

After the gifts have been presented, one of these prayers or another offertory prayer is said.

A Let us pray.
A Blessed are you,
C O Lord our God,
maker of all things.
Through your goodness
you have blessed us with these gifts.

GREAT THANKSGIVING

The Great Thanksgiving is begun by the presiding minister.

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

P Lift up your hearts.

C We lift them to the Lord.

P Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

C It is right to give our thanks and praise.

P It is indeed right and salutary that we should at all times and in all places offer thanks... (Here the minister continues with the proper preface, concluding:) we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

C Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, heav - en and earth are full of your glo - ry. Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bless-ed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.
Ho - san - na in the high - est. Ho - san - na in the high - est.

The minister continues, using one of the prayers below.

☐ We give you thanks, Father,
through Jesus Christ,
your beloved Son,
whom you sent in this end of the ages
to save and redeem us
and to proclaim to us your will.

He is your Word,
inseparable from you.
Through him you created all things,
and in him you take delight.
He is your Word,
sent from heaven to a virgin's womb.
He there took on our nature
and our lot
and was shown forth as your Son,
born of the Holy Spirit
and of the virgin Mary.

It is he,
our Lord Jesus,
who fulfilled all your will
and won for you a holy people;
he stretched out his hands in suffering
in order to free from suffering
those who trust you.

It is he
who, handed over to a death
he freely accepted,
in order to destroy death,
to break the bonds of the evil one,
to crush hell underfoot,
to give light to the righteous,
to establish his covenant,
and to show forth the resurrection,
taking bread and
giving thanks to you, said:
Take and eat;
this is my body,
broken for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

This prayer continues on page 38.

OR

☐ Holy, mighty, and merciful Lord,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.
In great love you sent to us Jesus,
your Son, who reached out
to heal the sick and suffering,
who preached good news to the poor,
and who, on the cross,
opened his arms to all.

In the night in which he was betrayed,
our Lord Jesus took bread,
and gave thanks; broke it,
and gave it to his disciples,
saying: Take and eat;
this is my body, given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper,
he took the cup, gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink,
saying: This cup is
the new covenant in my blood,
shed for you and for all people
for the forgiveness of sin.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, therefore,
his death, resurrection, and ascension,
we await his coming in glory.

Pour out your Holy Spirit,
that by this Holy Communion
we may know the unity
we share with all your people
in the body of your Son,
Jesus Christ our Lord.

Through him, with him, in him,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
all glory and honor is yours,
almighty Father, now and forever.

☐ Amen

The Lord's Prayer follows on page 39.

In the same way
he took the cup,
gave thanks,
and gave it for all to drink, saying:
This is my blood poured out for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me.

Remembering, then,
his death and resurrection,
we lift this bread and cup before you,
giving you thanks that you have made us worthy
to stand before you
and to serve you
as your priestly people.

And we ask you:
Send your Spirit
upon these gifts of your Church;
gather into one all who share this bread and wine;
fill us with your Holy Spirit
to establish our faith in truth,
that we may praise and glorify you
through your Son Jesus Christ.

Through him
all glory and honor is yours,
Almighty Father,
with the Holy Spirit,
in your holy Church
both now and forever.

A - men, a - men, a - men, a - men, a - men.

RESPONSE TO THE WORD

A song, hymn, or canticle is sung.

As the singing concludes, the leaders may gather near the baptismal font. The response to the Word continues:

- L In Christ, you have heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation.
C We believe in him and are marked with the seal of the promised Holy Spirit.

Ephesians 1:13–14

- L Living together in trust and hope, we confess our faith.

- C I believe in God, the Father almighty,
creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit,
and born of the virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended into hell.*

On the third day he rose again.

He ascended into heaven,
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

Or, He descended to the dead.*

- L Build yourselves up on your most holy faith;
C pray in the Holy Spirit.

Jude 20

- L Keep yourselves in the love of God;
C look forward to the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Jude 21

- L If anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation:

- C Everything old has passed away;
behold, everything has become new!

2 Corinthians 5:17

- L God has given us the ministry of reconciliation.
Therefore, let us be reconciled to God and to one another.

Kneel/Stand

Silence for reflection and self examination.

L Gracious God,

C have mercy on us. In your compassion forgive us our sins,
known and unknown, things done and left undone.

Uphold us by your Spirit so that we may live and serve you in newness of life, to the honor and glory of your holy name; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

The leader continues, using the appropriate section below.

P Almighty God
have mercy on you,
forgive you all your sins
through our Lord Jesus Christ,
strengthen you in all goodness,
and by the power of the Holy Spirit
keep you in eternal life.

C Amen

OR

L The almighty and merciful Lord
grant us pardon, forgiveness,
and remission of all our sins.

OFFERTORY

As the gifts are presented, the congregation may sing this Offertory or another appropriate song, hymn, or canticle.

C (Advent to Transfiguration) Glo - ry to you, God, for yours is the earth;
(Lent to Pentecost) Glo - ry to you, God, for yours is the earth;
(Season after Pentecost) Glo - ry to you, God, for yours is the earth;

yours is the prom - ise, the bless - ing, the birth.
 yours the ho - san - nas, the dy - ing, re - birth.
 yours the a - noint - ing, the ra - di - ant worth.

Ours the re - joic - ing for Word giv - en frame;
 Ours the re - joic - ing for na - ture re - claimed;
 Ours the re - joic - ing for spir - its a - flame;

ours the thanks - giv - ing to your ho - ly name.

Ours be the tell - ing of deeds great - ly done;

yours be the glo - ry, O God, yours a - lone.

At the conclusion of the Offertory, one of these prayers or another offertory prayer may be said.

Advent to Transfiguration

L Let us pray.
L Merciful God,
C in the mystery of the Word made flesh, you embrace our lives with your great love for humanity. With joy and gladness we ask that these gifts may be for many a sign of that love, and that we may continue to share in your divine life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen (575)

Lent to Pentecost

L Let us pray.
L Gracious God,
C in the abundance of your steadfast love, you call us from death to life, from silence to speech, from idleness to action. With these gifts we offer ourselves to you, and with the Church through all the ages we give thanks for your saving love in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen (576)

Season after Pentecost

L Let us pray.
L God, our Creator,
C you open wide your hand and satisfy the desire of every living creature. With these gifts we bless you for your tender nurture and care. Help us to delight in your will and walk in your ways, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen (577)

THE PRAYERS

The prayers begin with these or similar words:

☐ As God's people called to love one another,
let us pray for the needs of the Church, the human family, and all the world.

Prayers are included for the whole Church, the nations, those in need, the parish, and special concerns. The congregation may be invited to offer other petitions. The leader gives thanks for the faithful departed, especially for those who recently have died.

Each portion of the prayers concludes with these or similar words:

OR

☐ Hear us, O God;
☑ your mercy is great.

☐ God of mercy,
☑ hear our prayer.

The prayers conclude with these or similar words:

☐ All these things and whatever else you see that we need, grant us, O God, for the sake of Christ who died and rose again, and now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever.

☑ Amen

LORD'S PRAYER

☐ Let us pray with confidence
in the words our Savior gave us:

☑ Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those
who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen

☐ Lord, remember us in your
kingdom, and teach us to pray:

☑ Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those
who trespass against us;
and lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
forever and ever. Amen

BLESSING

The blessing of God is announced, using one of these or other appropriate words.

P Almighty God,
Father, ✝ Son, and Holy Spirit,
bless you now and forever.

C Amen

OR

L May the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ fill you
with every spiritual blessing.

C Amen

L May the God of faithfulness and encouragement grant you to live
in harmony with one another,
in accordance with Christ Jesus.

C Amen

L May the God of hope fill you
with all joy and peace in believing,
so that you may abound in hope
by the power of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen

Romans 15

SENDING SONG

A hymn, song, or canticle may be sung as the people are sent forth.

DISMISSAL

The leader may dismiss the congregation.

L Go in peace. Serve the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

PRAYING TOGETHER

Ecumenical Texts

English Language Liturgical Consultation (1988)

KYRIE

Lord, have mercy.

Christ, have mercy.

Lord, have mercy.

GLORY TO GOD

Glory to God in the highest,
and peace to God's people on earth.

Lord God, heavenly King,
almighty God and Father,
we worship you, we give you thanks,
we praise you for your glory.

Lord Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God,
you take away the sin of the world:
have mercy on us;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father:
receive our prayer.

For you alone are the Holy One,
you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High,
Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit,
in the glory of God the Father. Amen

NICENE CREED

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,

true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us and for our salvation

he came down from heaven,
was incarnate of the Holy Spirit and the Virgin Mary
and became truly human.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;

and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified,
who has spoken through the prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.

We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.

We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen

APOSTLES' CREED

I believe in God, the Father almighty,
creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, God's only Son, our Lord,
who was conceived by the Holy Spirit,
born of the Virgin Mary,
suffered under Pontius Pilate,
was crucified, died, and was buried;
he descended to the dead.
On the third day he rose again;
he ascended into heaven,
he is seated at the right hand of the Father,
and he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit,
the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints,
the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body,
and the life everlasting. Amen

THANKSGIVING

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Holy, holy, holy Lord, God of power and might,
heaven and earth are full of your glory.

Hosanna in the highest.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.

Hosanna in the highest.

OUR FATHER

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours
now and for ever. Amen

LAMB OF GOD

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, grant us peace.

CANTICLE

Now, Lord, you let your servant go in peace:
your word has been fulfilled.

My own eyes have seen the salvation
which you have prepared in the sight of every people:
a light to reveal you to the nations
and the glory of your people Israel.

For All the Faithful Women

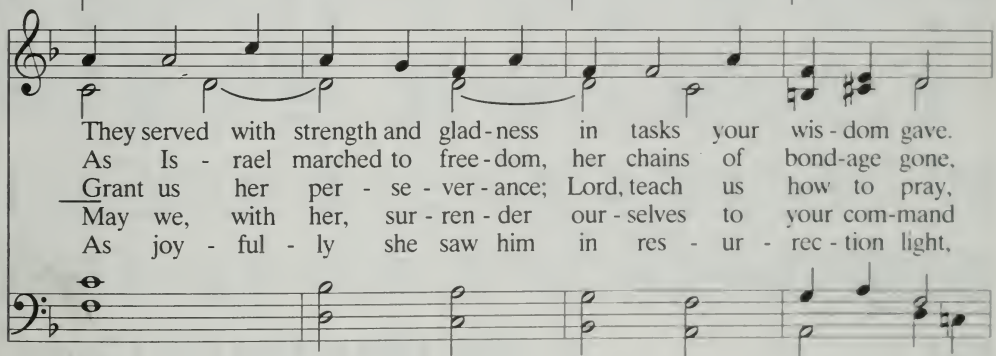

692

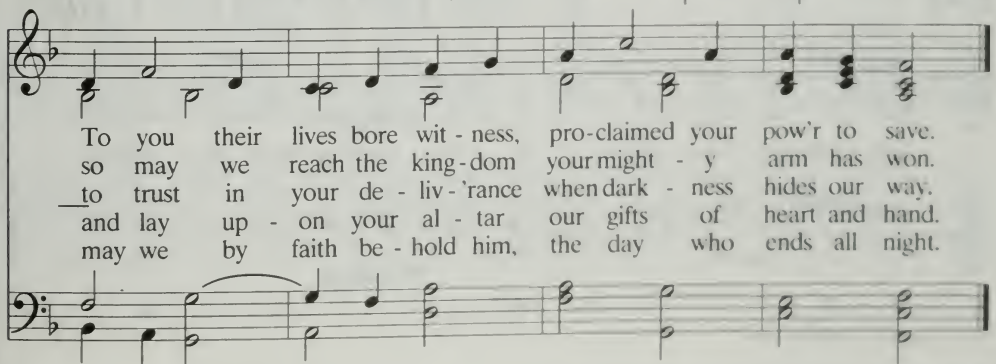

1 For all the faith-ful wom-en who served in days of old,
 2 We praise your name for Mir-iam who sang tri-um-phant-ly
 3 To Han-nah, pray-ing child-less be-fore the throne of grace.
 4 We sing of Mar-y, moth-er, fair maid-en, full of grace.
 5 We praise the oth-er Mar-y who came at Eas-ter dawn

to you shall thanks be giv-en; to all, their sto-ry told.
 while Phar-aoh's vaunt-ed ar-my lay drowned be-neath the sea.
 you gave a son whose ser-vice would be be-fore your face.
 She bore the Christ, our broth-er, who came to save our race.
 and near the tomb did tar-ry, but found her Lord was gone.

They served with strength and glad-ness in tasks your wis-dom gave.
 As Is-rael marched to free-dom, her chains of bond-age gone,
 Grant us her per-se-ver-ance; Lord, teach us how to pray,
 May we, with her, sur-ren-der our-selves to your com-mand
 As joy-ful-ly she saw him in res-ur-rec-tion light,

To you their lives bore wit-ness, pro-claimed your pow'r to save.
 so may we reach the king-dom your might-y arm has won.
 to trust in your de-liv-'rance when dark-ness hides our way,
 and lay up-on your al-tar our gifts of heart and hand.
 may we by faith be-hold him, the day who ends all night.

1 Bless-ed as-sur-ance, Je-sus is mine! Oh, what a fore-taste of glo-ry di-vine!
 2 Per-fect sub-mis-sion, per-fect de-light, vi-sions of rap-ture now burst on my sight;
 3 Per-fect sub-mis-sion, all is at rest; I in my Sa-vior am hap-py and blest,

Heir of sal-va-tion, pur-chase of God, born of his Spir-it, washed in his blood.
 an-gels de-scend-ing bring from a-bove e-choes of mer-cy, whis-pers of love.
 watch-ing and wait-ing, look-ing a-bove, filled with his good-ness, lost in his love.

Refrain

This is my sto-ry, this is my song, prais-ing my Sa-vior all the day long:

this is my sto-ry, this is my song, prais-ing my Sa-vior all the day long.

O Day of Peace

1 O day of peace that dim-ly shines through all our hopes and prayers and dreams,
2 Then shall the wolf dwell with the lamb; ne'er shall the fierce de-vour the small;

guide us to jus-tice, truth, and love, de-liv-ered from our self-ish schemes.
as beasts and cat-tle calm-ly graze, a lit-tle child shall lead them all.

May swords of hate fall from our hands, our hearts from en-vy find re-lease.
Then en-e-mies shall learn to love, all crea-tures find their true ac-cord;

till by God's grace our war-ring world shall see Christ's prom-ised reign of peace.
the hope of peace shall be ful - filled, for all the earth shall know the Lord.
